

GLAR wants you to GET OUT & VOTE

This year is an important election season where many critical races are taking place with the potential to alter the political landscape and impact your business transactions in our region. Over the last couple of weeks your Government Affairs Committee has been hard at work interviewing candidates to evaluate for potential endorsements in the upcoming November 5th general election.

These candidates were vetted via a thorough process with our Government Affairs Committee (GAC), Local Candidate Review Committee (LCRC) and Board of Directors (Board). Each endorsed candidate must have submitted a candidate questionnaire and were interviewed by our GAC.

Here are some details about the process:

- Our candidate questionnaire starts the process for our GAC members vet the strengths and weaknesses of each candidate after the interview.
- GAC members are polled to get a pulse on who they prefer as the candidates that best fits the pillars of the REALTOR® PARTY in protecting small businesses, increasing housing production, increasing homeownership opportunities and protecting private property rights.
- This poll is then shared by our LCRC where they continue vetting the candidates by looking at their political viability and electability. Our LCRC makes a recommendation to our Board to endorse a candidate.
- Our Board makes the final decision for GLAR to officially endorse a candidate
